LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will now return to legislative session.

ORDERS FOR MONDAY, MARCH 24, 2003

Mr. FRIST. I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until 2 p.m., Monday, March 24. I further ask that following the prayer and pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate then begin a period of morning business until 5 p.m., with the time equally divided between the majority and the minority leaders or their designees.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. For the information of all Senators, on Monday the Senate will be in a period of morning business throughout the afternoon. There will be no rollcall votes on Monday.

I want to thank my colleagues on both sides of the aisle for the constructive week we have had. Under the previous agreement, we now have a time certain for passage of the budget resolution, and I thank my colleagues for their cooperation.

The Senate will return to the budget resolution on Tuesday morning at 9:30 and immediately begin a long series of stacked rollcall votes. Members are encouraged to remain in the Chamber during Tuesday's session as numerous votes are expected. With the cooperation of all Senators, we can reach a final vote on the resolution in a timely manner.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 2 P.M., MONDAY, MARCH 24, 2003

Mr. FRIST. If there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 8:33 p.m., adjourned until Monday, March 24, 2003, at 2 p.m.
